

Southeastern Police Community Relations Council

Is looking for Energetic People Who Want to Make a Difference in their COMMUNITY!

Do you want to make your community better?

Do you want to help you neighbor?

Do you have issues that you would like to bring to the forefront?

Do you think that relations between the police and the community could improve?

Would you like a better understanding of how the Police department works?

Do you enjoy meeting new people and networking?

If you have answered YES to one or more of these questions; then joining the SEPCRC is for you!

SEPCRC a group, of dedicated individuals seeking to improve relations between the police and the community. The Council's goal is to heighten the police department's awareness of the community's needs and to increase the community's assistance to the police department. We sponsor and foster a variety of programs and activities designed to maintain public interest in quality police service.

The SEPCRC meets the second Tuesday of each month at a local restaurant, where we have a social hour followed by a meeting. If you would like more information, contact Joe Hudson at 443.844.2185 or email - daart\_2@hotmail.com
